Webinar – October 19th 12:00 Noon to 1:30 State Laws and Legislation that Impact Your Construction Project

ONLY ONE WEEK LEFT TO REGISTER - Webinar: State Laws and Legislation that Impact Your Construction Project: How to Navigate Everything from Licensing to Liens

October 19, 2010 • 1:00 - 2:30pm ET

Every state has unique laws that impact your ability to bid, contract, perform and get paid on a construction project. Learn how to systematically navigate through state construction laws, including new legislation, as well as the legislative outlook going forward. Even if you have previously worked in a state, the annual legislative process creates the real possibility of changes on critical topics such as licensing qualifications, project delivery, procurement selection and immigration verification. ## Consensus Docs

The First and Only Industry Standard Subcontract - ConsensusDOCS 725

The ConsensusDOCS 725 – Agreement Between Subcontractor and Subsubcontractor is the only standard subcontract available. Rather than simply using a purchase order or trying to alter a subcontract, the ConsensusDOCS 725 was specifically designed to address the unique characteristics of subcontracting. Read More →

After the Fall: When & Where Construction Will Rebound Free Webinar – October 21st 1:00 P.M. CDT

Although the calendar says summer officially lasts until September 22, design and construction industries have felt the effects of a 2-year-long fall. Some segments and regions appear ready to spring ahead, while others possibly face a long, cold winter. Register now to hear what three leading forecasters have to say about the climate for your business.

Economic experts from Reed Construction Data, the Associated General Contractors of America (AGC) and the American Institute of Architects will examine market conditions and detail the construction outlook for upcoming months into 2011.

The complimentary webinar is open to everyone and will broadcast live. Registration is required. Speakers Jim Haughey, Ken Simonson and Kermit Baker will accept questions from the audience in the last half hour. For more information and registration
